Child Care Factsheet

Dutchess County

Child care is a critical support for families with young children, employers, and New York State's economy. New York has made substantial investments in the child care system over the past few years, but more is needed to help the sector thrive. The supply of child care is not large enough to meet the needs of families, care is too expensive for many families to afford out-of-pocket, and the child care workforce is underpaid.

Dutchess County has 13,613 children under the age of 5 and 24,227 children between 5 and 12 years old out of a total population of 296,012. In the county, 70% of families with children under 6 have all adults in the workforce, and 70% of mothers with children under 6 are in the workforce across the county.

In Dutchess County, there were 236 child care programs in 2020 and 221 programs in 2025, a change of -6% over five years.

The Progress

Policy changes over the past several years have dramatically lowered child care costs for families enrolled in the Child Care Assistance Program. From 2020-2025, the annual copayment amount for a family of four making $50,000/year decreased from $15,000 to $188.

NYS allocations to the County for the Child Care Assistance Program, from 2020-2025, have changed by 85% from $6,834,283 to $12,649,040.

The Challenges

Over 42% of children living in Dutchess County qualify for some form of child care assistance. However, only 7% of eligible families were enrolled in 2023-2024.

On average, child care workers in Dutchess County earn $18.70/hour, or $38,147/year.

94% of jobs in Dutchess County earn more than the average child care provider.

Child care workers earn less than most other jobs, even though they serve a vital role to children and families. High turnover in the child care workforce increases the cost of care for providers and limits the quality of care for families.
